At Prosperity Connection, we believe in the power of financial education and the transformational results it can bring to the community. So, in working with our social service and community partners, we created the Excel Center®, a destination point and trusted source for FREE financial literacy classes, individual, goal-focused financial coaching, life skills education, professional development, and much more. The Excel Center offers a platform to promote and encourage self-sufficiency and financial dignity through the power of education and development services. Office Hours: M-Th (9-4:30 pm) and Friday (9-1:30 pm). By Appointment Only.

Consumer Resources

We are here to serve you! In addition to the classes we offer each month, we also have free services that are provided outside of the classroom.

We Want to Hear From You! For more information or to sign up for a class, call our Financial Literacy Hotline at (314) 371-5057, or send an e-mail to center@prosperityconnection.org

One-On-One Financial Coaching

Our free, one-on-one financial coaching sessions take place at our Excel Center facilities. Through a series of in-person meetings, our highly trained educators work with clients to:

- – Set achievable goals
- – Create individualized action plans
- – Build wealth for the future

This program offers participants an opportunity to get personalized assistance with their financial plan. Together, we will work to understand and evaluate your current budget, goals, and resources. Depending on your needs, we can discuss credit, predatory lending, identity theft, and managing your account. We begin by developing a strategy to meet and exceed your financial goals, and recommend specific courses of action for you to take. Come prepared to make the sacrifices necessary to succeed and take the action required to meet your goals. Email center@prosperityconnection.org or Alnita at 314-371-6016 to schedule your one-on-one coaching session today!

 Prosperity Connection has launched two RedDough® Money Centers to serve the St. Louis metro area: Pagedale and South St. Louis City. RedDough is a small-dollar loan store that also offers check cashing and other alternative banking services. We provide an affordable alternative to traditional check cashing and payday lending, while presenting a true pathway to economic independence. In addition, its mission is to give back to the communities it serves by providing resources to support financial education, scholarships and various social services.
